

LOCAL RECOVERY COMMUNITY CENTER OPENING

NOT A METHADONE CLINIC, REHAB, DISPENSARY, OR HALF-WAY HOUSE.

FAVOR -Laurel Highlands is excited to announce its official launch of our new recovery community center in Johnstown, PA. Executive Director, Jason Riligio, will open the doors at 226 Fairfield Avenue on November 1, 2023.

Area leaders and residents are invited to join in a Q&A session, 10/25, from 4-6pm at the center. Following with a walk-in open house, November 1, and 2 from 11am-6pm. All are invited for light refreshments and a tour.

FAVOR (Faces And Voices of Recovery) -Laurel Highlands, mission is: Assisting individuals, families, and communities in building sustainable recovery capital. We exist to serve as a vital backbone of support across the Laurel Highlands region that will result in empowered residents and stronger communities.

The establishment of FAVOR -Laurel Highland's recovery center marks a significant milestone in our community's efforts to support individuals in recovery. FAVOR -Laurel Highlands is fully peer-run and governed, meaning all employees and board majority are in recovery. Our organization will serve as a hub for people in need of assistance, offering a variety of services, including:

- Support group meetings
- Educational workshops
- Wellness and self-care programs
- Peer mentoring and coaching
- Advocacy for recovery-related policies
- Community outreach and events

The recovery community center would not be possible without support of our collective partners at Behavioral Health of Cambria County and Magellan Health.

FAVOR -Laurel Highlands invites those seeking recovery, as well as their loved ones, to join our growing community. Whether you are at the beginning of your recovery journey, or well on your way, FAVOR -Laurel Highlands is here to provide support and encouragement.
